Internal Revenue Code Section 225(b)(2)(A)

Qualified overtime compensation

(a) In general.

There shall be allowed as a deduction an amount equal to the qualified overtime compensation received during the taxable year and included on statements furnished to the individual pursuant to section 6041(d)(4) or 6051(a)(19) .

(b) Limitation.

(1) In general.

The amount allowed as a deduction under this section for any taxable year shall not exceed $12,500 ($25,000 in the case of a joint return).

(2) Limitation based on adjusted gross income.

(A) In general. The amount allowable as a deduction under subsection (a) (after application of paragraph (1)) shall be reduced (but not below zero) by $100 for each $1,000 by which the taxpayer's modified adjusted gross income exceeds $150,000 ($300,000 in the case of a joint return).

(B) Modified adjusted gross income. For purposes of this paragraph, the term "modified adjusted gross income" means the adjusted gross income of the taxpayer for the taxable year increased by any amount excluded from gross income under section 911 , 931 , or 933 .

(c) Qualified overtime compensation.

(1) In general.

For purposes of this section, the term "qualified overtime compensation" means overtime compensation paid to an individual required under section 7 of the Fair Labor Standards Act of 1938 that is in excess of the regular rate (as used in such section) at which such individual is employed.

(2) Exclusions.

Such term shall not include any qualified tip (as defined in section 224(d)).

(d) Social security number required.

(1) In general.

No deduction shall be allowed under this section unless the taxpayer includes on the return of tax for the taxable year such individual's social security number.

(2) Social security number defined.

For purposes of paragraph (1), the term "social security number" shall have the meaning given such term in section 24(h)(7) .

(e) Married individuals.

If the taxpayer is a married individual (within the meaning of section 7703), this section shall apply only if the taxpayer and the taxpayer's spouse file a joint return for the taxable year.

(f) Regulations.

The Secretary shall issue such regulations or other guidance as may be necessary or appropriate to carry out the purposes of this section, including regulations or other guidance to prevent abuse of the deduction allowed by this section.

(g) Termination.

No deduction shall be allowed under this section for any taxable year beginning after December 31, 2028.
